WIRTA HOSPITALITY WORLDWIDE ANNOUNCES PARTNERSHIP WITH DELABARRE & ASSOC., INC.

(Sequim, WA) Bret Wirta, CEO of Wirta Hospitality Worldwide announced today that his company had entered into a partnership with Sharon DelaBarre, owner of DelaBarre & Associates, Inc. Wirta said that DelaBarre & Associates will provide a high level of expertise and support for those clients wishing to plan a conference or exhibit at the Holiday Inn Express and Conference Center here in Sequim. DelaBarre Associates was founded in 1974 and specializes in providing basic management consulting and support in servicing conferences and exhibition programs for the public and private sectors. DBA's clients have included federal, state and local governmental agencies as well as industry and non-profit organizations.

Wirta said, "Sharon has over 30 years experience in conference and exposition planning, program development, management, public relations and support services. She holds the Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) designation, the highest acknowledgement in her profession. Sharon has produced several expos throughout the country including bringing high-tech conferences to under-serviced areas. We are so fortunate to be partnering with an expert in her field. With Sharon's expertise, we have the capability to provide full service quality support for meetings, conferences, exhibits and special events right here at our hotel in Sequim."

The new 77 room Holiday Inn Express and Conference Center, Sequim, public spaces include a 2,600 square foot conference center, Great Room, two executive boardrooms and a rooftop veranda with an array of 44 solar panels that generate enough electricity to power the conference center by the sun.
